

Synopsis

Whisper, a unique little rabbit born without a face, embarks on an exciting adventure in the magical forest of Whiskerwood. Unbeknownst to Whisper, a tricky black panther named Silk is secretly tracking him. Lost in the enchanting forest, Whisper meets Quill, a wise old owl who reveals his rare condition and instructs him to complete three tasks before the next full moon in order to find a face.

With determination and bravery, Whisper sets out on his journey, forming friendships with Sly the snake, Buzz the honey badger, Lunar the skunk, and Blackthorn the crow. As they enjoy their time together, Silk the panther remains hidden, waiting for the perfect moment to strike.

As Whisper and his friends approach the final challenge, they encounter a lost troll named Gumbo who is in need of help. Whisper faces a difficult decision—continue his quest or assist Gumbo in finding his way home. The answer lies in the light of the full moon, revealing a secret that only it can unveil.

Join Whisper on this captivating adventure filled with friendship and bravery. Immerse yourself in the interactive features of the eBook, with animations on every page and pulsating text to guide young readers through the story. Experience the magic of Whiskerwood as the characters come to life and discover the joy of reading combined with the excitement of interactive play. This enchanting tale is perfect for children aged 4 to 12, inspiring them to embrace their own inner strength and celebrate their uniqueness.